IN APPRECIATION

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
If so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
As any friend could say
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.

OBITUARY

ANNIE MARIE BALLOTT was born November 2, 1928 to Florence and William Jones, Jr. of Sulfur Springs, Texas.

Annie moved to California in 1943. It was here that she met and married Cleveland Ballott. In 1949 Annie gave her heart to Christ. She faithfully executed here duties as a Christian, mother and Minister's wife for over forty years.

In June of 1988, Annie suffered a massive heart attack while doing what she enjoyed most; fishing. Two days later she suffered a massive stroke and her doctors felt she would not make it through the night. But God, not being limited to modern medicine allowed us to have her with us another four and a half years until he called her home on January 9, 1993. If there was one thing that she was to be remembered by, it would be her hospitality. Over the years, even with her seven children in the home, she opened her doors and offered a seat at her table to hundreds, often for a night and at times weeks, months and years. If you came to her home you felt at home. All those who knew and loved her will miss her. All those who shared in the same faith as she did know; "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."

Annie is survived by her husband, Cleveland Ballott, Sr.; daughter, Sandra Rodriguez; sons, Cleveland Jr., Robert Leonard, William (Billy), James and David; her brother, O.C. Jones; fifteen grandchildren, three great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

"She was a fisher of 'fish' and also of 'souls'."
